R/180 Mission Statement: We believe in the inherent truth that broken relationships are the result of a subtle to serious departure from God's principles. We also believe that through re-engaging God's relational truths that ALL things are possible, no matter how deep the hurt, no matter how rooted the issues. R/180's counseling mission is to facilitate renewal of broken relationships using God's Word to bring clarity, healing; and intimacy; first to our relationship with God and then to others.

R/180 Vision: World-wide impact of relational reconciliation

R/180 Vision Statement: Relational breakdowns know no boundaries. Therefore our vision is Global; to bring spiritual transformation, reconciliation and relational equipping to individuals, marriages, and families, as well as emerging and established pastors, kingdom leaders, and institutions. From minor breakdowns to critical distress, we are ultimately committed to train the individual or organization to train and or govern themselves. Through low cost counseling and teaching at our various venues, we're uniquely positioned to equip a generation of leaders to become relationship builders for the advancement of God's Kingdom and the furtherance of His Gospel.

R/180 Core Value: Uncover what is real... at all costs

R/180 Core Value Statement: At the core of every relational breakdown - there is reality. Much like our mission, we believe that revealing "core honesty and truth" in every conflict is essential for genuine catharsis, healing, and character transformation. Without it, there is façade, manipulation and continued despair. With it, there is that amazing space where God begins His great work of restoration. R/180 is committed to the courage, discomfort and spiritual sensitivities that are necessary to steward wisely over truth from all involved in any relational conflict, large or small. We have taken a vow to be "compassionate, humble, steadfast and forthright" to help build more intimate relationships, stronger leadership and healthier, more productive individuals and institutions. This is our core value.
